Welcome to Kuala Lumpur! This is a city that I have been visiting for many years and I will continue to visit for many years to come. As the multicultural capital city of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur has a unique culture of its own as well as a vibrant international business community. And there is no place in Kuala Lumpur better suited to have an annual general meeting than with the chosen hotel, Shangri-La.

I hope that you take advantage of what the city has to offer while you are here. I want your time to be profitable and enjoyable. If there is anything that either I or any of the staffs can do to further that end, we are more than happy to help. Just let us know!

Enjoy the meetings and enjoy Malaysia!

Kuala Lumpur Malaysia

Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia, is located in west-central Peninsular Malaysia; its ocean port, Port Kelang, sits about 25 miles (40 km) to the west on the Strait of Malacca. Kuala Lumpur, which lies astride the confluence of the Kelang and Gombak rivers, is Malaysia's largest urban area as well as its cultural, commercial, and transportation centre. The city's commercial quarter, known as the Golden Triangle, is the site of the Petronas Twin Towers, two of the world's tallest buildings.

Kuala Lumpur has a cityscape filled with gleaming skyscrapers and colonial architecture. The capital of Malaysia is widely recognised for numerous landmarks, including Petronas Twin Towers (twin skyscrapers with a sky bridge and observation deck), the Petaling Street flea market, and Batu Caves, which is over 400 million years old.

The city's main hub is called the Golden Triangle, which comprises Bukit Bintang, KLCC, and Chinatown. Expansive shopping malls like Pavilion KL and Suria KLCC are among the biggest attractions in the city. These grand shopping places host a wide range of upmarket labels from all over the world. Foodies have plenty of good reasons to love Kuala Lumpur. The city's thousands of hawker stalls, cafes, and restaurants serve every type of delicacy imaginable. Beyond Kuala Lumpur's glass, steel, and concrete, you'll find plenty of green spaces and natural attractions for a respite. Just a short drive from the city, you can explore lush forested hills with hiking trails leading to waterfalls.

Home to three of the 10 largest shopping malls in the world, it comes as no surprise that Kuala Lumpur is often considered as the retail and fashion hub of Southeast Asia. Authentic handicrafts to major international brands are all on sale in the masses of malls in Kuala Lumpur. The city's traditional markets are equally enjoyable with atmospheric experiences. Visiting KL during March, May or December during the mega sale event is an escapade in itself for the shoppers.

Kuala Lumpur is a non-stop banquet. From dining at lavish restaurants to eating with the locals at the street stalls, almost all of Malaysia's culinary specialities can be found in KL. Do stop by the hawker stalls and traditional neighbourhood kopitiam (coffee shops) to sample the best of the local delicacies. Kuala Lumpur is also the gateway to Malaysia's contemporary art scene with numerous visual arts gallery and exhibition centres.

The 6th most visited city in the world (in 2019), KL is thronged by tourists. Yet, it retains the laidback ambience and jungle lushness of the kampung (village) it once was. Exploring this 21st-century metropolis is a cakewalk with a comprehensive road system and extensive public transportation. Hop on any of the mass rapid transit (MRT), light rapid transit (LRT), monorail, commuter rail or public buses and whizz past Kuala Lumpur in a matter of minutes!
